Re: Green v. State of New York, 14-CV-2073-RJS-FM

Hon. Sullivan:

I am writing at this time in request for a ninety-day extension of time to respond the Respondent's Answer with supporting memorandum of law. In addition, I am requesting to expand the record under Rule 7(a) of the Rules Governing Section 2254 Cases to include an exhibit from the state court record the respondents failed to supply the Court with.

Assuming arguendo, the respondents claim, the petitioner's request should be denied because his are meritless, however, to assist the Court in the resolution of the claims presented, the proposed exhibit will substantiate the petitioner's claim of the issue being fairly presented to the state courts, and exhausted for review. O'Sullivan v. Boerckel, 526 U.S. 838, 848 (1999).

In addition, expansion of the record will assist the Court in resolution of the petitioner's claim to rebut the respondents contentions and to illustrate he did inform them of the constitutional nature of his claims when he relied on specific provisions of the Constitution, cited clearly established Supreme Court precedent, and relied upon state and federal cases employing the federal constitutional analysis in his request for relief during appellate and state post-conviction review of his claims (Baldwin v. Reese, 541 U.S. 27, 29-31 [2004]).

In sum, the petitioner hopes the requested relief will be granted because it is germane to the issue presented (Williams v. Schiriro, 423 F.Supp.2d 994, 1002-1003 [D. Ariz. 2006]).

Thank you.

Respectfully Submitted,

Edward Green
